

Undercover Wear

Description:

UnderCoverWear started in 1981 and operates throughout Australia and New Zealand. UnderCoverWear has over 2000 Independent Sales Consultants in Australia and New Zealand.

Our headquarters located in Baulkham Hills, Sydney, New South Wales is a large modern complex built on 2.9 acres and includes our design, administration, production, warehousing and distribution facilities. The company employs a top team of management executives to help support our large team of Independent Sales Consultants. There is also a customer service centre to ensure any customer enquiry is dealt with efficiently and effectively.

The company's marketing and sales support team is continually developing new marketing programs including catalogues, promotional material and sales aids to assist the Sales Consultants. Continuous communication with the sales team is something that the company prides itself on.
